Shop local this winter in Hamilton

As some COVID-19 restrictions begin to ease in Queensland, it's more important than ever to show our local business community that they're not alone.

Many businesses in Hamilton and along Racecourse Road have adapted to the challenges of COVID-19 with adjusted operating hours, take-away and delivery options and an increased online presence.

While social distancing and some restrictions remain in place, be sure to support the many exciting retail and dining businesses in our local area.

Project update – COVID19

Despite the challenges, the project team remains committed to a safe and high-quality completion of the project in 2020.

Our team is taking a proactive approach to ensure the safety of the community and project team members whilst enabling project works to continue with minimal interruption.

We have implemented a variety of practical measures onsite with social distancing at the core of our approach.

During this time, we encourage everyone in the community to take extra care, stay safe and look out for your neighbours.

Why are these works happening?

The Kingsford Smith Drive upgrade, scheduled for completion in the second half of 2020, will improve the capacity of the road to meet the future needs of the traffic network on one of Brisbane's busiest roads.

The upgrade involves widening the road from four to six lanes between Theodore Street at Eagle Farm and Cooksley Street at Hamilton. It also includes improvement works between Cooksley Street and Breakfast Creek Road at Albion.

The project also delivers upgraded public transport facilities with indented bus stops that cater for future increases in bus services along the corridor and reduce delays.
